

At our meeting on April 19th you requested that I look at existing access roads into Sandia Canyon to get to the wetlands area. I have looked at this with Brad McKown GIS Tech and we cannot identify any existing roads. It would also be difficult and likely expensive to construct a road given the elevation change of about 120 feet over short distances (steep slopes). I can provide more information if necessary.